And the winner is: Breidenbacher Hof !

Dusseldorf´s Grand Dame voted „Hotel of the Year 2015“

Dusseldorf - October, 28, 2014: For more than two centuries, the Breidenbacher Hof in Dusseldorf represents exclusive hospitality and perfect luxury to distinguished guests from around the world.

Only six years after re-opening the legendary five-star hotel, which is now part of the Capella Hotel Group, a dream came true. Hotel Breidenbacher Hof, a Capella Hotel is pleased to announce that it has been awarded „Hotel of the Year 2015“ by publishing house Busche last night. This award has been presented by Busche for 15 years now and is the most prestigious rating a hotel can receive. The ceremony took place at K21 Ständehaus in Dusseldorf and the evening continued at Breidenbacher Hof, where winners and guests celebrated the official Diamonds Night, the glamorous After Show Party, until late at night.

General Manager Cyrus Heydarian, who has additionally been announced „Hotel-Manager of the Year 2015“ is incredibly honored and grateful. “Being rated ‘Hotel of the Year 2015’ is the reward for an excellent team achievement and therefore, I am very proud to say that this prize is dedicated to the entire team”, states Heydarian. „The philosophy of Breidenbacher Hof, a Capella Hotel, is setting our guests at the center of attention and making their experience truly unique and exceptional. This is our passion and the reason why we are leaders in the industry when it comes to service“, Heydarian explains.

Since summer 2014, the Breidenbacher Hof, a Capella Hotel sets yet another ultimate standard of unparalleled luxury by presenting two more assets to the existing facilities and services. The Royal Floor, a recently created space on the top floor, hosts 11 new units that can be rented exclusively and are simply matchless in décor and space. A separate side entrance guarantees a maximum level of privacy for the guests. Additionally, a 600 m² large Spa has been integrated in the basement of the hotel. The Spa is home to a gym, an indoor pool and various sauna facilities that promise world-class comfort for a relaxing and memorable stay.

Horst Schulze, CEO and founder of the Capella Hotel Group, has known the historical Grand Hotel from his early youth and has been fascinated by it's aura ever since. „When I was a young man, I wished I would be able to work in a place like this one day“, Schulze remembers. Luckily he has fulfilled this desire in many ways and is now one of the most influential personalities in the hotel business. „Our vision of personalized dedication, highest level of customer satisfaction and excellence in hospitality sets standards in the hotel industry and is implemented by the team at Breidenbacher Hof in such a perfect way that all I can say is – thank you and carry on“, Schulze acknowledges.
